

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

Google's mission is to organize the world's information and to make it universally accessible and useful. Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. Sarah Amanda Whiting was descended, on her father's side, from Rev. Samuel Whiting, of Lynn, Mass., 1636, and on her mother's side, from Israel Putnam, of revolutionary fame.

He entered Amherst College in Aug., 1854, and was a classmate of Mr. Rufus B. Kellogg. He was honorably dismissed in the spring of 1857 on account of ill health. In the following autumn he rem. to Illinois, and was for two years principal of the High School in Bloomington. He enlisted as a private in Co. C, Thirty-third Illinois Infantry, soon became Lieut., and subsequently Capt. He fell in charging the works at Vicksburg, 20 May, 1863. He rests in a soldier's grave on the field of battle.

Said the Lieut.-Col. of his regiment: "I saw him as he marched to his death with a clear presentiment of his fate, calm and resolute. When upon the ground he pointed to a little eminence in front saying, 'I shall fall near that spot.' Then, as they went forward to the attack, he, being in advance of his company, waved his sword above his head, calling out to his men, 'Follow me to victory or death.' He fell within ten feet of the spot he had pointed out, and, when removed a few moments after, his sword was held so firmly that it required some force in unclasping his hand from the hilt."

In a letter he says: "My two oldest boys are giants, weighing 195 pounds each, and are the best jumpers and wrestlers in all this section. Fred was on the football team of Lake Forest Institute. Both Dave and Fred won nearly all the prizes on field day at that school. My youngest son, Rufus Hunt Landon Kellogg, yet in his teens, weighs 168 pounds; at the recent encampment he has outlifted the best; his dead weight lift is 1330 pounds. In Springfield, Ill., this fall, at the general encampment, he took nineteen bars of lead, each weighing ninety pounds, raised them with his two hands above his head and delivered them three rods away, making nineteen trips. There was not a man on the ground who could raise one of the bars once, let alone nineteen times. So you see that physical degeneracy has not followed this branch. Two years ago I took the boys to Washington and they have taken 620 acres of timber land in the region south and east of Cape Flattery."

He entered Williams College in 1856, but was obliged to leave on account of ill health. Two years later he entered Princeton College and graduated in 1861. He entered the Theological Seminary, and for two years was a mathematical tutor in the college. Soon after his marriage, he, with his wife, took passage on a merchant vessel from Boston to Ceylon, expecting to reach that land in about 100 days. Soon after leaving Boston, the captain was washed overboard in a storm. The mate, proving ignorant and incompetent, turned the sailing of the ship over to Dr. Kellogg, who acted as navigator until they reached Ceylon, after a trip of 148 days. He was given charge of the Barhpur Mission in India. About 1870 he began the work of preparing a Hindoo Grammar. The reputation gained in this work gave him a place in the Congress of Orientalists held in Stockholm in 1889. The grammar was also prescribed by Her Majesty's Civil Service Commissioners for India as an authority to be studied by all candidates for the Indian Civil Service. Soon after the death of his wife, he returned to the United States, and during his stay was called to the pastorate of the Third Presbyterian Church of Pittsburgh, and later to the chair of Systematic Theology in Allegheny Seminary. In 1886 he accepted a call from St. James' Square Presbyterian Church, Toronto, where he labored for six years with eminent success. While in this country he paid much attention to the training of men for foreign missionary service. He had been honored by the degrees of Doctor of Divinity, conferred by Princeton College, and Doctor of Laws, by Wooster University. He was the author of many articles for various magazines, and published several volumes.

Colton's Co. of Minute Men on the Lexington Alarm thirty days; enlisted into the Continental army for the town of Western (now Warren), and served from 1776 until the close of the war; his name is on the "Depreciation rolls."

*The law required that the intention of marriage should be published three times in the meeting house. Sometimes the intention was read by the Town Clerk, the deacon or the minister and a notice placed on a post or on the church door. In many of the towns the notice was also recorded in the Town Clerk's office and is frequently the only record by which the marriage can be proven.

Nathaniel Morgan was the son of Miles Morgan, who settled in Springfield, 1645, and Hannah Bliss. Hannah Bird was the dau. of James Bird, of Farmington, Conn., and Lydia ———.

She d. in Bronson, O., 1 Apr., 1866; he d. 17 Aug., 1892, aged 105 years, 10 months and 27 days.

Beginning in 1805 he taught school nine winters, the first winter in Royalton, the others in Barnard, where he was m. In June, 1815, he started from Bethel for Ohio and arrived in Bronson, 30 July, after a journey of six weeks. A year later he moved on to the farm in Bronson (being the first actual settler in that township), and passed the remainder of his days there.

In Sept., 1886, the Firelands Historical Society, of which he was a member, celebrated his one hundredth birthday anniversary at his house in Bronson, at which more than two thousand people were present. On another page will be found a facsimile of a letter which he wrote when he was 101 years, 4 months and 15 days old. In 1861 he wrote: "I am one of the busy sort—improve as many hours at something as any man I ever knew. More than thirty years ago it is said I read more than any other man in the county. Many big stories have been told here, perhaps that is not the largest. I have the best flower garden of any farmer within my acquaintance; commonly raise about an acre of broom corn and make from three hundred to five hundred brooms a year." In Jan., 1883: "The 21st of last September closed my ninety-sixth year. I stay pretty close at home in cold weather, and in pleasant weather am able to ride out and make calls and get and out of the buggy without help." Nov., 1885: "One son, six grandchildren, twenty great grandchildren and four great great grandchildren, some years ago had a meeting in Norwalk of five generations. Ninety-nine years! what change in that time! I have lived under every President we have had, the noted French revolution, Napoleon's wars, his Russian campaign, his final defeat and confinement on the rock."

He was a remarkable man; was never known to speak a cross word and never used tobacco in any form. Everything he did was done well. He was active in church and society matters. The purity of his motives and the deep interest manifested in everything around him will ever be remembered and considered by his friends.

Dear Mr. Kellogg
My dear Mr.

Your letter dated January 1st
was received yesterday.
It is all most here to tell
that I am still as it is and more especially as I must write about myself. I have had a great deal since I last wrote you. My health more improved and hearing are greatly improved. Can converse with me and we think they set near me
can tell me person from another
on the opposite side of the moon.
It is true that I receive many letters and make replies.
I hardly know in the next time
and keep as near it as I can.

I have over two thousand pages of the Icelandic Land History. Also a thousand was over, as the same becomes missing.
in business and in certain men in
the historical society.
I have over two thousand pages of the Icelandic History. Also a thousand I have a very good history between the
and few hundred volumes, six or seven as by the name of A. H. H. of Copenhagen.
three volumes of. I have, five pages
in the history of Iceland to the
in the history of Iceland to the
with my dear Mr. Kellogg. I have as it is in a dark cloudy day.
I have regards and best wishes, to yourself and friends. Best wishes.
I have not been from home for four years.

APPENDIX V.

KELLOGGS IN THE WAR OF THE AMERICAN REVOLUTION.

(Descendants of any of the following Kelloggs, applying for membership to Societies of the American Revolution, may prove the service of the ancestor, from whom they derive eligibility, by referring to the page of the Official Record as indicated by the figures in the middle of the following pages. When no title is attached to a name the person served as a private in the ranks.)

RECORD OF SERVICE OF CONNECTICUT MEN IN THE WAR OF THE REVOLUTION.

Compiled by authority of the General Assembly, under the direction of the Adjutant-General, Hartford, 1889.

List of the men who marched from the Connecticut towns "for the relief of Boston in the Lexington Alarm," April, 1775:

(Page 17.)

From the town of New Hartford.

KELLOGG, MOSES, 3 days in service.

KELLOGG, LEVERETT, 3 days in service.

From the town of Wethersfield.

(Page 25.)

KELLOGG, MARTIN, 1st Lieut., 6 days in service.

KELLOGG, PHINEAS, 6 days in service.

Second Regiment, Gen. Spencer's, 1775.

This regiment was raised on the first call for troops by the Legislature, April-May, 1775. Recruited mainly in present Middlesex Co., and eastern part of the Colony. Marching by companies to the camps around Boston, it took post at Roxbury, and served during the siege until expiration of term of service, Dec., 1775. Detachments of officers and men engaged at the battle of Bunker Hill, June 17, and in Arnold's Quebec Expedition, Sept.-Dec., 1775. Adopted as Continental in July. The regiment was reorganized for service in 1776, under Col. Wylls.

8th Company.

KELLOGG, RUSSELL, enlisted May 7, 1775, discharged Dec. 17, 1775.

Fourth Regiment, Col. Hinman's, 1775.

This regiment was raised on the first call for troops, April-May, 1775, and recruited mainly in Litchfield County. Upon the surprise of Fort Ticonderoga,

May 10, Governor Trumbull ordered this regiment to march as soon as possible to secure that post and Crown Point against recapture. A request to this effect was also made by the Continental Congress. The regiment reached Ticonderoga in June, and Col. Hinman assumed command until the arrival of Gen. Schuyler. It took part in the operations of the Northern Department until the expiration of term of service, Dec., 1775. This regiment suffered much from sickness, and many men were mustered out in Oct.-Nov., 1775.

KELLOGG, SAMUEL, was discharged from Col. Hinman's regiment Sept. 2, 1775, but it is not noted to which company he was attached.

Under the caption of "Additional Soldiers" in Hinman's regiment it is stated that among others:

(Page 63.)

KELLOGG, SAM. Belonged to Capt. Sedgwick's Company.

Fifth Regiment, Col. Waterbury's, 1775.

This regiment was raised on the first call for troops by act of Legislature, April-May, 1775. Recruited mainly in Fairfield County. Its record is identical with that of Gen. Wooster's or the First Regiment, up to the siege of St. John, in October, it having marched first to New York under Wooster and then to the Northern Department. Term of service expired Dec., 1775, but on account of sickness many men returned home in October and November, 1775.

1st Company.

KELLOG, ASAHEL. Enlisted May 9, 1775; re-entered, Nov. 17, 1775.

(Page 67.)

KELLOG, ELIJAH. Enlisted May 10, 1775; discharged Sept. 17, 1775.

Col. Huntington's Regiment, 1776.

17th Continental.

Huntington's regiment of 1775, as reorganized for service in the Continental Army for the year 1776. After the siege of Boston it marched under Washington to New York (by way of New London and the Sound in schooners), and remained in that vicinity from April to the close of the year. It assisted in fortifying the city; ordered Aug. 24 to the Brooklyn front; engaged in the battle of Long Island, Aug. 27, in and near Greenwood Cemetery; was surrounded by the enemy and lost heavily in prisoners; moved with the main army until after the battle of White Plains; disbanded under Gen. Heath, near Peekskill, Dec. 31, 1776. The rolls are incomplete.

Roll of Capt. Jonathan Brewster's Company, Huntington's Regiment, 1776.

KELLOGG, DAVID.

Colonel Burrall's Regiment, 1776.

This regiment was raised on the Continental basis to serve in the Northern Department under Gen. Schuyler for the year 1776, its term expiring Jan. 19, 1777. It reinforced the troops besieging Quebec under Arnold and Wooster, and after the retreat from that position in April, 1776, was stationed at Ticonderoga and vicinity, where the men suffered severely from smallpox. Two companies of the regiment, Capt. Downs' and Stevens', were engaged in the affair at the Cedars, forty miles above Montreal, on May 19, and nearly all made prisoners. Roll incomplete.

(Pages 111 and 112.)

KELLOGG, ELDAD. Enlisted Feb. 5, 1776, and was taken prisoner at the Cedars, Canada, May 19, 1776. (Am. Archives, 5th ser., vol. 1, p. 168.)

Third Regiment, "Connecticut Line." Formation of 1777-1781.

This regiment was raised for the new army or "Continental Line," and recruited mainly in Hartford County and the eastern part of the State. The general rendezvous at Middletown. Assisted in repelling the enemy at Danbury, April 26-27. In the summer of 1778 the regiment encamped at White Plains with Washington's main army.

Raised from Jan., 1777, for the new Continental Line to serve through the war. Enlisted in Litchfield and other Counties. Went into the field at Camp Peekskill. Ordered into Pennsylvania under Gen. McDougall. It fought at Germantown, Oct. 4, 1777, and suffered some loss. Assigned to Barnum's Brigade, Oct. 16. A detachment from the regiment with one from Durkee's continued the stubborn defence of Fort Mifflin, Mud Island, Pa., Nov. 12-16, 1777, and lost "some gallant officers and men." Wintered at Valley Forge, 1777-78, and on June 28 following the regiment participated in the battle of Monmouth.

State Regiments at Boston, Jan.-March, 1776.

During the reorganization of the Continental force before Boston, Dec., 1775, Feb., 1776, when the soldiers were coming and going, Washington called for regiments from the New England States to guard the lines at various points until the new army had been well established. Connecticut sent three regiments under Cols. James Wadsworth, Erastus Wolcott and John Douglass. They reached Boston toward the end of January and remained about six weeks. The rolls of Col. Wolcott's regiment alone are on file. It formed a part of the detachment from the army that occupied Boston after the enemy evacuated the town.

MASSACHUSETTS SOLDIERS AND SAILORS OF THE REVOLUTIONARY WAR.

A Compilation from the Archives, prepared and published by the Secretary of the Commonwealth.

(Descendants of any of the following Kelloggs, applying for membership to Societies of the American Revolution, may prove the service of the ancestor, from whom they derive eligibility, by referring to the volume and page of the Official Record as indicated by the figures in the middle of the following pages.)

NOTE.—All names are given exactly as they appear on the original records. The order of arrangement of the facts of service in each individual record given is the same, as nearly as possible, as the original entries, and is as follows: The name; the place of residence, if given; the rank; the kind of document whereon the record appears; the enlistment and discharge, if given; the time of service; remarks.

A discrepancy will sometimes be noted between the service given and the actual service as figured between the dates of enlistment and discharge. The difference is accounted for by the practice of including, with service performed, a time allowance for travel on the basis of one day for every 20 miles out or home. As the same name may appear under various forms, each carrying some portion of a record of service, it is necessary in order to obtain the complete record, as far as preserved, of any given individual, to examine all the forms under which a name is stated to appear in the Record Index.
